TBILISI

YOUR STAY IN TBILISI - 3 NIGHTS

Gamarjoba! (Hello in Georgian)

Perched on the banks of Mtkvari River, and surrounded by mountains on three sides, Tbilisi, Georgia's ancient and vibrant capital, will enchant you from the outset. Though small in size, the city has a lot to offer to its visitors, from its historical buildings and monasteries to its quaint cafes and elite restaurants.

Archaeological readings of the region signal human settlement here from as early as the 4th millennium BC. Did you know that Tbilisi has a fascinating story behind its name? According to a popular legend, in mid-5th century AD, King Vakhtang I of Iberia was out hunting in the heavily forested region near Mtskheta. He was accompanied by a trained falcon who allegedly captured a pheasant during the hunt. However, both the birds fell into a nearby hot spring and died from burns. King Vakhtang was so awestruck by the hot springs located in this woodland that he decided to cut down the jungle and build a city there.

Today, that city of hot sulphur springs is known as Tbilisi, deriving its name from "Tbili", an old Georgian word that means "warm" in English.

VISA REQUIREMENTS FOR GEORGIA

- ✓ Citizens of United Arab Emirates need no visa to enter Georgia, and will be issued a visa on arrival. Visitors holding visa or residence permits of other GCC countries can travel visa-free to Georgia for a durations of up to 90 days (note: the GCC resident permit should be at least 6-month old for Georgia visa exemption).

There are numerous countries that are exempted from requiring a visa to Georgia, and are allowed to stay in the country for a maximum period of one year. Some of these countries include Saudi Arabia, State of Kuwait, State of Qatar, Kingdom of Bahrain, Oman, Switzerland, all European Union countries, Brazil, South Africa, Russia, Mexico, New Zealand, Malaysia, Singapore, Japan, Canada, Turkey, United States, Seychelles, Armenia, Panama, Norway, Colombia, Mauritius, Thailand, Malaysia, Iceland, Azerbaijan, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Canada, Moldova, Qatar, Russia, South Korea, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, Uruguay, and many more.

All the countries that are not included in the list of countries exempted from issuing a visa for up to a period of one year, must apply for a visa at the Georgian diplomatic missions from their respective countries.

Citizens belonging to EU countries can travel to Georgia with a national identity card and don't necessarily need a passport. However, it is must for citizens from other nationalities to carry their passports.

When it comes to the visa policy of Georgia, following are a few documents that will be required by the citizens of exempted countries, when applying for a Georgia visa – a recent passport-sized photograph, a passport that is valid for at least a minimum period of six months from the date of applying for the visa, the required consular fee, and a fully completed and signed Visa Application form.

For further elaborate information on the visa policy of Georgia, contact the Georgia embassy in your respective country, or you could visit the official website of the Georgian embassy.
